

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 790

Introduced by Assembly Members Furutani and Carter

February 17, 2011

An act relating to pupil instruction.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL’S DIGEST

AB 790, as introduced, Furutani. Pupil instruction: linked learning.

Existing law establishes the system of public elementary and secondary schools in this state, and provides for the establishment of the local educational agencies, including school districts, that establish and operate the schools and provide instruction to pupils throughout the state.

This bill would express a finding and declaration of the Legislature relating to the educational approach known as linked learning, and would declare the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation that would help expand and enhance the delivery of linked learning in California’s public elementary and secondary schools.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that linked
- 2 learning is an educational approach that makes learning exciting
- 3 and challenging by connecting academic study with real-world
- 4 experience in a wide range of fields. It is the intent of the
- 5 Legislature to enact legislation that would help expand and enhance

- 1 the delivery of linked learning in California's public elementary
- 2 and secondary schools.
